

A Vintage View Web Bonus: Bull's Eye

Striking secondary patterns of octagons and elongated stars add to the visual excitement of this beautiful quilt.

SKILL LEVEL INTERMEDIATE

Finished Quilt Size 61½" x 76"

Note: Templates are at end of pattern. Appliqué templates are printed without seam allowance, except straight sides of Templates B and C, which include seam allowances to be caught in block seams.

Number of Blocks and Finished Size

20 Bull's Eye Blocks 14½" x 14½"

Planning a Reproduction

These engaging blocks were hand appliquéd and pieced, but the anonymous quiltmaker chose to save time by assembling the block rows and adding the borders by machine. Lovely hand quilting completes this charming quilt.

Fabric Requirements

White solid (background, binding)	5¼ yds.
Pink solid (appliqué)	1¾ yds.
Red solid (appliqué)	1 yd.
Blue solid (blocks, border)	5 yds.

Quilt Top Assembly

Note: Refer to Assembly Diagram for following steps.

5 Sew 5 rows of 4 blocks each. Sew rows together.

6 Stitch blue 78" strips to sides; trim even with top and bottom. Stitch remaining blue strips to top/bottom; trim even with sides.

Quilting and Finishing

7 Layer, baste, and quilt. Each block patch was hand outline stitched, and concentric lines of quilting were added inside the patches. The white corner patches are filled with cross-hatching, and quilting lines on the outer white patches continue across the border strips.

8 Bind with white solid.

Piecing the Blocks

1 Referring to Diagram I, appliqué curved edge of Template B fabric to Template A fabric, aligning straight raw edges. In same manner, appliqué Template C fabric to Template B fabric. Make 80.

Diagram I

2 Stitch Template D and Dr fabrics together, starting and stopping at match points (Diagram II). Aligning match points, set in appliquéd unit. Make 80 corner units.

Diagram II

3 Referring to Diagram III, stitch Template E fabric to each of 4 corner units, stopping seams at block center match points. In same manner, stitch 2 each together to make 2 half blocks. Stitch half blocks together. Make 20.
